

In Order to Be Great.

a comic by Linda you

My name is Adina,

these are my
rules to life.

1. never look
back.

2. always work hard.
if you don't achieve,
you are nothing.

3. GIVE, GIVE, GIVE...

...give

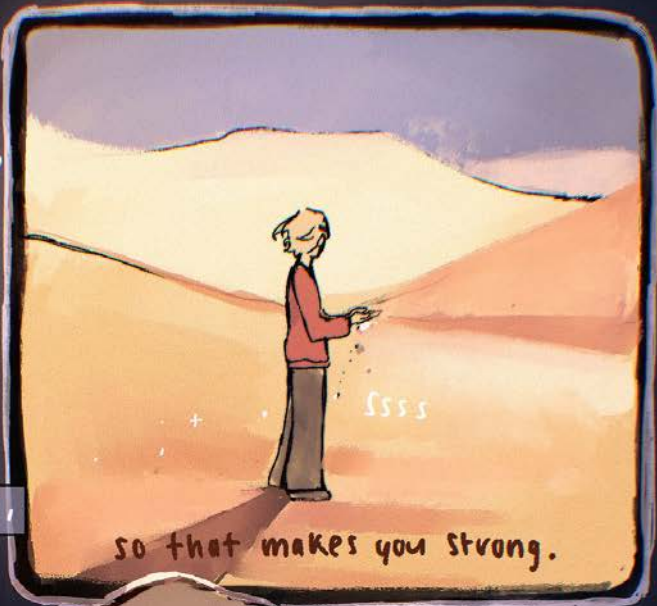

most importantly,
you must familiarize yourself with the feeling of things slipping away,

...so should
you find yourself
with
nothing,

you know
it was your choice,

...you can take it,

so that makes you strong.

That is what it means to
have control.

When dad died,

I studied more.

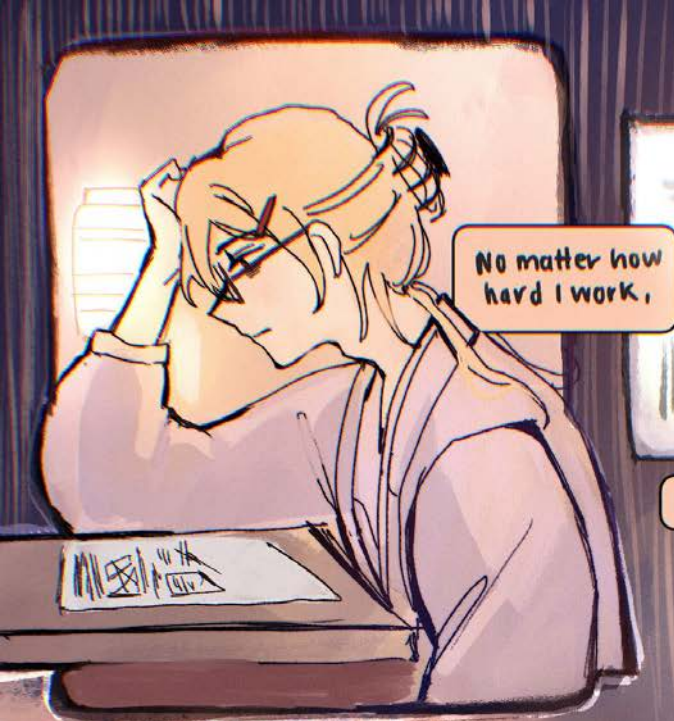

I thought that maybe
if I studied more and
placed first place lots, mom would
smile again...

...but as time passed, I grew bitter.

No matter how hard I work,

learn,

build,

do,

... the world feels too big for someone like myself.

WOC SH-
SPLASH

I can't help but wonder... what if things had been different?

"be great."

"prove yourself."

It's painful to feel so small.

Is the earth ever jealous of the sun's greatness?

what about the sun to the galaxy?
the universe?

I guess there's no way anyone could possibly know.
